Whistleblowing Policy

Whistleblowing is when someone reports wrongdoing on the basis that it is in the public interest for the wrongdoing to be brought to light.

The Blossomfield Club Ltd (the Club) will not tolerate any harassment, victimisation, or unfair treatment of, and will take appropriate action to protect, whistleblowers when they raise a concern in good faith.

Scope

Whistleblowing can include (but is not limited to):

- the Club not having clear safeguarding procedures to follow
- concerns aren't dealt with properly, or may be covered up
- a concern that was raised hasn't been acted upon
- being worried that repercussions are likely to arise if you raise a concern.

This applies to incidents that happened in the past, are happening now, or may happen in the future.

Who to contact?

Whistleblowers should in the first instance, contact one of the club's Welfare Officers by:

- email at blossomfieldclub@btconnect.com

If the whistleblower does not wish to speak to someone within the venue, they should contact the NSPCC Whistleblowing Advice Line on 0800 028 0285 or by emailing help@nspcc.org.uk

Information to include when raising a concern

The whistleblower should provide as much information as possible regarding the incident or circumstance which has given rise to the concern, including:

- their name and contact details (unless they wish to remain anonymous);
- names of individuals involved;
- date, time and location of incident and circumstance; and
- whether any witnesses were present.
